The Weathervane Story

Though we opened our store in 1975, it was 1992 before we fulfilled our dream of opening a restaurant. Weathervane reflected our vision for Southern cuisine and commitment to service and hospitality. In 2003, we moved to our current location, which allowed for a larger patio and added more spaces, a mezzanine level and garden settings for receptions, parties, and meetings. Today, Weathervane's devoted staff—led by lauded Executive Chef Spencer Carter—and special setting have helped propel the restaurant to its acclaimed status. It is an integral partner of the distinctive marketplace that has become a Chapel Hill tradition.
